

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Broadcasting's have some responsibility to the public and whether your upper management is a Pro-Bush flunky or not this is irresponsible. I will personally boycott all sponsors of this channel.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
